Love gaming, programming, or filming? Take hobbies further and gain a competitive edge at iD Tech Camps! Over 130,000 students ages 7-17 have enrolled in fun and challenging, weeklong, day and overnight programs held at 60+ prestigious universities nationwide including Sacred Heart, Wesleyan, Brown, Princeton, Stanford and others. Small classes (max 8:1) are guaranteed, and taught by adult-only instructors.

Courses: Create iPhone apps, programs with C++ and Java, video games, websites, movies, 3D models, robots, films, photos and more. Accredited Continuing Education Units are available.

Year-Round Learning! New for 2012, students can complement their summer experience by subscribing to iDTech365.com — an online learning community offering tutorials, forums and video lessons. And don't forget about the FREE monthly online workshops.

Teen-Only Programs: For two-weeks, ages 13-18 are immersed in specialized, pre-college, overnight summer programs at iD Programming Academy (held at Yale), iD Gaming Academy and iD Visual Arts Academy (filmmaking and photography). Visit www.iDTeenAcademies.com for courses and university locations.
