Now in its 25th season, New Haven Ballet continues to offer superior classes and performance opportunities to students training for a professional career or dancing for the sheer joy and pleasure of movement. Conveniently located in the Audubon Arts District and at the Whitney Arts Center in New Haven, and at 200 Village Walk in Guilford, New Haven Ballet has a class that's right for you.

Dance, unlike any other art form, builds physical grace and strength while simultaneously challenging and developing a student's creativity and intellect.

New Haven Ballet's Children's and Student Divisions feature a graded curriculum for ages 3-18 in pre-ballet, ballet, pointe, jazz, tap, and hip-hop, and the teen/adult Open Division offers ballet, jazz, and tap classes for the beginner and experienced dancer over the age of 14.

New Haven Ballet offers a variety of performance opportunities for students to develop stage presence, poise and confidence outside of the classroom. They include the annual holiday favorite, The Nutcracker, at the prestigious Shubert Theater accompanied by Orchestra New England and the United Girls' Choir, as well as our Spring Performance, also held at the Shubert Theater in June.

Intermediate and Advanced students may also join the New Haven Ballet Company, which performs an eclectic repertoire of classical and contemporary choreography throughout the region.

Classes begin Wednesday, September 9. For more information, please call 203-782-9038, e-mail administrator@newhavenballet.org or visit www.newhavenballet.org.
