Who doesn't love candy? No one! That's why I Want Candys is such a favorite addition to any party or event. If you can imagine it, I Want Candys can bring it to you and your guests. We provide a candy assortment of both old-time and current favorites in themed packages to create desirable, tasty treats your guests will enjoy and remember! We will work with you to create a custom candy buffet that will add just the right finishing touch to any party so guests leave with sweet memories of your event. Perfect for weddings, graduations, birthdays (kids specialty), showers, corporate and charity events and more!

At I Want Candys, clients are the #1 priority and we will make sure that your candy buffet will be unique and exactly as you imagined. Services may include any or all of the following: candy selection, customized serving cart, attractive serving jars/baskets, candy scoopers, candy bags with ties (personalized for an additional charge), chocolate fountain, theme accessories, candy setup and take down.

Another service we offer is the opportunity to have a candy gift basket delivered for special occasions. Designed with the recipient in mind, these personalized baskets can be hand-delivered to homes, offices or hospitals.
