Antonio “Tony” Feliciano has been interested in magic since he was 8 years old. In 1982, with the assistance of his friend, Tony performed his first magic show and won first place.

Since then, Tony has enjoyed performing his magic tricks in front of audiences of all ages. He has learned to master the art of Pantomime, which is the ability to make hundreds of people laugh without the use of words. Tony received guidance on the art of being a Clown from his friend, Ron “Toto” Johnson, before he joined the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Tony has managed to combine all of his talents with Magic, Comedy and Pantomime and is know as Tony the Magic Man. He performs at parties for all occasions and all ages. Tony has also been featured in the Waterbury Republican-American for his performances in various events, such as the Wolcott County Fair, the Up On Waterbury Festival and the African and Latin American Festival. Tony has been a member of the Harry Houdini Assembly 29 of the Society of American Magicians since 1982.
