Looking for a creative idea to liven up your next event? Characters for Hire is an entertainment company specializing in costumed entertainment. Characters for Hire wants to make sure your event is spectacular; the staff of over 200 professional well-trained performers will provide you with entertainment for large and small audiences such as children's birthday parties and corporate events.

You can have Spiderman climb walls, jump buildings and perform acrobatic stunts or Luke Skywalker battle Darth Vader in the ultimate showdown between good and evil! Your child will be ecstatic when Batman and Captain America show up with games and activities. Enjoy the musical princess show by a professional actress that looks and sings like the character. Special packages are available for all budgets!

When it comes to costumed entertainment - We bring the stage to you™
